

Using performing arts to engage the Victorian Aboriginal community

Presenters: Tammy Anderson and Justine Holmes

Artist: Dixon Patten Jnr - Yorta Yorta and Gunaai
www.cancervic.org.au/dixon-patten

Great Walls of Vagina – an Aboriginal PapScreen Comedy

PapScreen Victoria

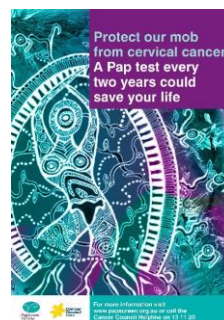

- Communications and recruitment program funded by the Victorian Department of Health and Human Services

Ask your Aboriginal health worker or GP about the cervical cancer vaccine. It's free for girls and women aged 13-26. For more information call 1300 852 888.

Healthy women, strong communities
Cervical cancer prevention resources

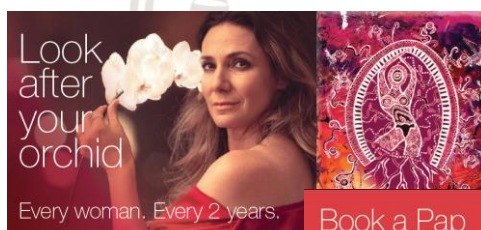

For more information call 1300 852 888 or visit the website papscreen.org.au

Resources created by PapScreen Victoria using Aboriginal artwork from Victorian Aboriginal artwork to promote cervical cancer prevention

Performing arts

- A new approach for PapScreen Victoria

Book a Pap test today.

Date and time of appointment:

Clinic contact details

As a mum, as a daughter, as a sister, it's important to take care of your health.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women are almost four times more likely to die from cervical cancer than non-Aboriginal women in Australia.

For more information phone 13 11 20 or visit papscreen.org.au

Adapted by Narelle Lethbridge

How did we do it?

- Community lead – PSV provided key messages about Pap tests
- Two leading Victorian Aboriginal female performers did the rest!
- Traditional language, humour to break shame, honesty
- Aboriginal advisory group formed

Tammy Anderson, Kylie Beling and Antoinette Braybrook at a Sister's Day Out event

Great Walls of Vagina tours Victoria

- Partnership with Aboriginal Family Violence Prevention and Legal Service Victoria (AFVPLS) and their initiative - Sisters Day Out
- 20 performances
- 1150 women

99th Sister's Day Out event

Tammy Anderson

