

TIMOR-LESTE
ONE HEALTH
SYMPOSIUM 2025

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Submission Deadline
August 15, 2025

Symposium Date
23 September 2025

“Strengthening Local Collaboration in Human, Animal, and Environmental Health: Timor-Leste Pathway into ASEAN through One Health Approach”

TOPICS INCLUDE

1. Zoonotic diseases and emerging health threats
2. Antimicrobial Resistance (AMR)
3. Climate change and environmental health
4. Integrated surveillance and data sharing
5. One Health policy and intersectoral collaboration
6. Community-based health initiatives
7. Food Safety and Nutrition

SUBMISSION FORMAT

- Language: English, Portuguese, or Tetum
- Word Count: Maximum 300 words
- Structure:
 - o Title: Clear and concise
 - o Authors: Full names, affiliations, and contact of corresponding author
 - o Background: Brief context and rationale
 - o Objective: Purpose of the study or project
 - o Methods: Summary of approach, tools, or methodology
 - o Results: Key findings (can be preliminary)
 - o Conclusion: Implications or recommendations
 - o Keywords: Up to 5

ELIGIBILITY

- Open to invited researchers, practitioners, and community stakeholders from all sectors (human, animal, environment).
- Work must be original and relevant to One Health.
- Abstracts may be based on completed research, ongoing projects, or innovative practices.

Submission Process

Abstract must be submitted via email :

 lesy.atok@menzies.edu.au

- Please include in the email subject: “Abstract Submission – [Your Name]”
- Submit in .doc or .docx format

For more information :

 +670 7576 0534 | dr. Lesy

 +670 7659 1873 | dr. Yan

Authors will be informed of the presentation type upon acceptance.

Accepted abstracts will be published in the Symposium Abstract Booklet (print and digital) and Bulletin. Selected presenters may be invited for further dissemination (e.g., policy briefs or follow-up workshops)