

Project Title:Research opportunities within the Darwin Prospective Melioidosis Study*Project Summary:

The Menzies Melioidosis Program has exciting student opportunities to join the team working on one or more of epidemiology, clinical and environmental aspects of melioidosis. The projects are embedded within the Darwin Prospective Melioidosis Study, which has produced over 150 peer-reviewed publications and works in collaboration with overseas partners in global melioidosis collaborations

Research Division:

Global and Tropical Health - Menzies Melioidosis Program

Supervision contact:

Primary: 1) TBC

Associate: 2) TBC

Contact: Mark Mayo, Project Manager/Senior Researcher

T: (08) 89 468 564 | M: 0439 825 787 |

mark.mayo@menzies.edu.au

Location of the project: Darwin - NT

Outreach work? N ☒ Dependent on project type
Y ☒ Dependent on project type
If Y, Interstate ☒ Remote ☒ International ☒

Type of project: Hons [max 9 months 1 FTE] ☒
MPH thesis [max 6 months 1 FTE] ☒
MSc by research [max 2 years 1 FTE] ☒
PhD [max 3-4 years 1 FTE] ☒

Essential: Australian citizen or permanent resident