

FREE WORKSHOP

TRAINING AND IMPLEMENTATION OF THE 2020 OTITIS MEDIA GUIDELINES AND OMAPP

Workshop priority:

- Aboriginal Research Officers working in ear and hearing health research
- Aboriginal Health Practitioners (AHPs) and Nurses
- GPs and Practice Nurses – Northern Territory-based remote service providers
- Audiologists, ENTs and Paediatricians based in the Northern Territory working with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children

Topics:

- How to navigate the OMapp
- Prevention, diagnosis, management and referral pathways for otitis media
- Hands on training stations on otoscopy, tympanometry, hear screens
- GRADE approach: understanding the evidence of the OM Guidelines
- Research updates
- Networking opportunities for Aboriginal Researchers and those Aboriginal Health Practitioners interested in research

Workshop inclusions:

- 1.5 days' workshop, plus the opportunity for breakout meetings
- 2 nights' accommodation (with breakfast and lunch)
- Travel expenses up to $1000
- Hard print copy of the 2020 Otitis Media Guidelines

22-23 April 2021

Oaks Elan Darwin, 31 Woods St, Darwin

Registration Deadline: 31 March 2021

Call 0889468661 for more information or email cre_ichear@menzies.edu.au